

WHO IS ADRIAN?

Adrian Wallace is an award-winning, Jamaican-Canadian director, screenwriter and actor from Toronto, Ontario. He studied a vast array of post-secondary creative fields, from dramatic arts, acting for film and television, and media production.

His latest film, a documentary titled Black Sun was specially featured at the 2020 Montreal, Toronto, and Halifax International Black Film Festival, officially selected by CaribbeanTales on their 15th year anniversary, and is premiering on TV as part of CBC's Being Black in Canada showcase. As the creator, writer, director and co-lead in the web series Courtside, it has notched official selections internationally, and claimed 'Best Web Series' at the 2018 Toronto Nollywood International Film Festival.

Currently, Adrian is developing his debut feature, a TV series, and is pursuing opportunities as both an actor and content producer.

SERVICES

EDITORIAL

A unique and seasoned pen for hire. With abundant experience ranging in narrative scriptwriting for film and TV, radio, social media, copywriting, blogging, marketing communications, magazine and print.

FILM/VIDEO

A technically-inclined and creative director. With five years plus of film and TV industry experience, and practical capabilities from conceptualizing, directing and shooting digital media projects like commercial spots, corporate promos and creative artist videos, to post-production editing. A filmmaker of documentary, short and long form stories.

PHOTOGRAPHY

A great eye for a moment's capture. With work including individual and family portraits, weddings, corporate and entertainment event snapping, and documenting nature.

With great powers comes great irresponsibilities...
